

Blessing: Presider

Closing Ritual:

Family members will light candles of all in the assembly as the Prayer of St. Francis is sung.

Candle Lighting:

In our time of grieving we light a flame of sharing
The flame of on-going life
In this time when we search for understanding
And serenity in this time of loss
We light this as a sign of our belief
That gathered here in the mystery of the hour
Love is present
We are all here now because of our love for Dawna
Today we celebrate her life and her spirit.
Grant that each of us may hold on to a shining moment of memory,
That we may carry it in our hearts, as a candle,
And as each candle is lit it reminds us that one person can always
Make a difference
One bright flame ignites another
And our world is a better place because we knew and loved her.

Breaking Bread, 2006

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness only light, and where there's sadness ever joy.

O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand, to be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Opening Song: Rise Up With Him

Breaking Bread - 2006

People wait no more, God has shown you the glory of the Lord!

By the cross we claim our freedom. Christ has risen to everlasting life!

Refrain:

And we'll rise up, rise up with him,

and we'll rise, rise to new life!

And we'll rise up, rise up with him,

for with Jesus who leads us by grace we will rise up with him.

Ev'ry knee shall bend, Ev'ry tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
Lord and Savior of all nations, our salvation to everlasting life!

Jesus, whom we love, we proclaim your word for ages all to come.
Alleluia, sing a new song. Glory to our God of everlasting life!

Dawna wrote down two verses from Hebrews and placed them in her room.

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Our high priest is not indifferent to our weaknesses, for he was tempted in every way just as we are, yet without sinning. Let us, then, approach with confidence God, the giver of grace; we will obtain mercy and through his favor, help in due time.

And be patient in doing the will of God, and the promise will be yours.

The Word of the Lord.

Ephesians: 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before Him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of His will, for the praise of the glory of His grace that He granted us in the beloved.

In Him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of His grace that He lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, He has made known to us the mystery of His will in accord with His favor that He set forth in Him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In Him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of His glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In Him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in Him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of His glory.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Alleluia: Sung

Gospel: Matthew 26:36-41

Dawna had written down this passage.

Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to feel sorrow and distress. Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me."

He advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will. When he returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

The gospel of the Lord.

General Intercessions:

Dawna wrote down yet another verse, Isaiah 41:13

"For I, Yahweh, your God, take hold of your right hand and say to you: "Fear not, I will help you."

Let us now place our needs before our God, knowing that we will be heard.

Our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.
